LET THIS BE THE YEAR OF FUN, FELLOWSHIP, AND FRATERNAL UNITY

BY DIRECTOR DAVID MUJICA

Dear Noble Jesters,

As we dive deeper into this vibrant year, I want to take a moment to remind each of you what this journey is truly about—brotherhood, laughter, and lifting one another's spirits.

This year, I challenge each of us to reignite the joy and unity that makes our Court so special. Let's make it a year of FUN. Not just the kind that makes for great stories, but the kind that brings us back to why we became Jesters in the first place: connection, support, and good times shared among good men.

Reach out to a fellow Jester you haven't seen in a while. Invite them to join us at the next gathering. Sometimes life pulls us in different directions, but a simple phone call or message can bring someone back into the fold. Whether it's a toast, a laugh, or just the comfort of being among friends—we all need that reminder that we're part of something bigger.

Let's make this the year we all show up, support each other, and share in the joy that only the Royal Order of Jesters can deliver. Whether it's a night out, a weekend event, or a spontaneous gathering—come out and join us. You never know, you just might be missing out on a great story... or a great shot of tequila.

Yours in jest and joy,

David Mujica
Director

The Class Corner

NEOPHYTE NONSENSE

Gentlemen, jesters and ne'er-do-wells, It is with great honor (and mild mischief) that we introduce the illustrious LA CT 84 Class of 2025. We are thrilled to be part of such a fun and inspiring group. While we may come with a few quirks, rest assured—we'll always bring our best... or at least our most entertaining selves to the table.

Our class consists of three noble neophytes, each bringing a special blend of charm, wit, and... other qualities:

Zack Maples, the self-proclaimed mastermind behind our operation. If anything goes wrong, it was probably his idea.

Tom Hoyt, our ever-serious (and therefore ironically nicknamed) "Mr. Smiley," who somehow ended up as Treasurer—likely during a moment of confusion.

Danny Foxx, yours truly, who—after much debate and a few suspicious bribes—was bestowed with the honor of Class President.

Every great class needs guidance, and we are eternally grateful for our Class Mom, the ever-patient David Darzian. A beacon of support, a rock in our storm, and a good sport in our many shenanigans.

We just hope he doesn't fall under the spell of our Class Maid, the legendary—and slightly infamous—Harry (the nut case). If you see him wielding a mop... run.

Speaking of Class Maids, we must pay tribute to not one, but two legends: Harold Oakley and the late, great Steven Oakley. True gentlemen, jesters, and legends in their own right, their names add both honor and humor to our class legacy. We stand on the shoulders of mischief-making giants.

A special shoutout also goes to our Director, David Mujica (yes, autocorrect still thinks it's Mojado). His passion for this Order is unmatched, and we're all in awe of his tireless commitment. Although, seriously David—take a nap once in a while.

As we launch into this wild ride called 2025, we aim to live up to the lofty standards set before us: showing up on time (maybe), keeping our clothes wrinkle-free (unlikely), and representing LA CT 84 with pride, laughter, and a touch of madness (absolutely!).

For those who haven't met us yet, we've included a few photos from our recent adventures. Warning: prolonged exposure to Harry may result in unexpected glamour shots.

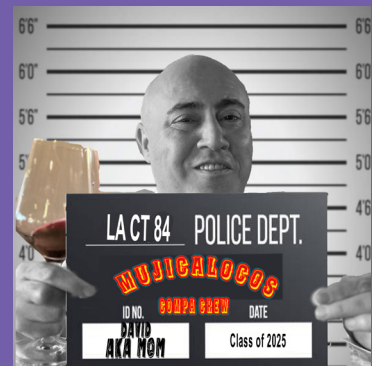

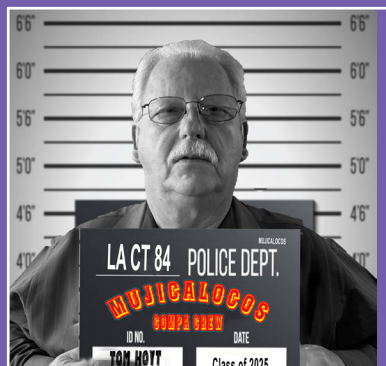

With fingers crossed, heads held high, and a healthy sense of humor, we say thank you to everyone who has welcomed us into this gloriously unhinged family. We're ready to make 2025 one for the books—whether you like it or not.

Cheers to laughter, camaraderie, and just a few minor disasters.

Farewell to Our Brother Steven Oakley

LA Court 84 Mourns One of Our Finest Jesters,

It's with heavy hearts and more than a few tears that we share the painful news: our brother Steven Oakley has passed away—suddenly, and far too soon.

Steven wasn't just a member of LA Court 84. He was one of our pillars. A brother who brought warmth, laughter, and an unshakable kindness everywhere he went. He had a smile that could disarm a room, a heart that gave freely, and a spirit that lifted all of us higher.

We are gutted. We miss him deeply—and let's be honest, we'll never forgive him for leaving us like this. You hear that, Steven? We needed more time, more laughs, more you.

But while he's no longer physically with us, his presence will never leave this Court. He's in every memory, every toast, every joke shared between brothers.

And one thing we will never waver on: Harold, your brother is now our responsibility. We've got him. Always.

From your family at LA Court 84—
We love you, we miss you, and you'll always have a seat at our table.

Once a Jester, always a Jester.

LA COURT 84 HOT NEWS

LA COURT 84 FORMS COMMITTEE TO EXPLORE DUES ADJUSTMENT OPTIONS

(Member Survey to Follow Before Final Proposal and By-Law Change)

By Danny Foxx
Neophyte Editor

In an effort to ensure the continued financial health and sustainability of LA Court 84, a special committee has been established to explore options for adjusting annual dues.

Under the direction of Court leadership, the committee has been tasked with developing several potential dues structures or plans that will meet the Court's operational needs while taking into consideration the diverse perspectives of its membership.

Once the committee finalizes its proposed options, members of LA Court 84 will be invited to participate in a survey. This survey will serve as a key step in gauging the general consensus of the Court and gathering valuable feedback from the Nobility.

The information collected from the survey will inform the committee's final recommendation. Following this consultative process, a formal proposal will be submitted for approval and will proceed through the appropriate channels for a by-law change.

"This is a collaborative effort," said Rick Norris. "We want to ensure that any changes to our dues structure reflect the collective voice of our members and support the long-term vitality of LA Court 84."

Members are encouraged to stay engaged and participate in the upcoming survey once released.
